Federal Community and Economic Development Programs

The purpose of this appropriation is to administer federal grant and loan programs to promote volunteerism and community and economic development among local governments, development authorities, and private entities.

Program Overview

Performance Measures:	FY 2009	FY 2010	FY 2011	FY 2012
Number of persons who benefit from local government community development activities financed through the state Community Development Block Grant program	62,125	62,627	52,422	50,129
Amount of private investment leveraged for Appalachian Regional Commission economic development projects	$84,500,000	$105,000,000	$171,000,000	$89,700,000

Summary of Activities: Administers the Americorps program which is a federal program that provides opportunities for young people to participate in community service programs for one to two-year commitments. Also includes the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC) loans and grants for loans to projects that create or retain jobs in Appalachia, the Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) regular competition and loan guarantee which provides economic and community development financing to local communities for federally eligible activities such as housing improvement projects and public facilities, the Employment Incentive Program which provides financing for economic development projects that will result in employment for low and moderate income persons and the Redevelopment Fund which finances projects that results in removal of “slum and blight.” Finally provides Immediate Threat and Danger funds for community development activities that have particular urgency as a result of disaster or threat to health or welfare of the community.

Target Population: Loans and grants are available to local governments for CDBG and financing to private business for ARC to benefit low and moderate income persons.

Delivery Mechanism: Administered by state employees, pass through funds are granted to local governments, non-profits and private businesses

Noteworthy: There is a federal matching requirement for Americorps funds which varies from 0-50% based on the duration that the program has been funded. For CDBG/State’s Program funds for state administration of the program, after an initial allowance of $100,000 with no match, states may take an additional allowance of up to 3% of the grant amount but must match such expenditures on a dollar for dollar basis. There are no federal matching requirements for Appalachian Regional Commission funds. There is also a dollar for dollar federal matching requirements for Appalachian Regional Commission funds.

Number of jobs created or retained	9,181	11,349	7,604	8,762
Summary of Activities: Assists cities, counties and development authorities in their efforts to revitalize and enhance downtown areas by providing below-market rate financing in the Downtown Development Revolving Loan Fund (DDRLF) to fund capital projects in core historic downtown areas and adjacent historic neighborhoods where DDRLF will spur commercial redevelopment. Administers grants used to attract businesses to the state in conjunction with the Department of Economic Development for “deal closing” funds through the Regional Economic Business Assistance (REBA) funds. Through the Regional Economic Assistance Process (REAP) DCA provides a mechanism for local and state governments and the private sector to cooperate on large-scale tourism-related projects with multiple uses that will create jobs and enhance local communities. Finally, DCA designates areas as Opportunity Zones eligible for businesses to receive job tax credits against the business tax liability for new jobs. Provides Regional Assistance to support multi-county and regional collaboration in economic development and provides grants to joint development authorities, local government authorities and regional developmental centers.
Target Population: Local governments and development authorities, private businesses
Delivery Mechanism: Administered by state employees, pass through funds to local governments and private businesses
Noteworthy: There is a federal matching requirement for CDBG/State’s Program funds. For a detailed explanation of that requirement, see program Federal Community Development Programs.
